State of New-Jersey, ss:

CHAPTER CCXXVII, LAWS MDCCCLXXIV.

AN ACT FOR THE INCORPORATION OF AN ASSOCIATION OF THE ALUMNI OF RUTGERS COLLEGE.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New-Jersey, That the Association of the Alumni of Rutgers College, instituted Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and the members of the same shall be and they are hereby created, a body corporate and politic in fact and in name, under and by the name, style and title of "THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ALUMNI OF RUTGERS COLLEGE," and by the same name and title, they and their associates and successors, are hereby constituted and confirmed, one body corporate and politic in law, to have perpetual succession, and be able and capable to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in all and any courts of justice and other places, in all manner of suits, pleas, causes and matters of what nature or kind soever, at law and in equity, and to have and use a common seal, and the same to break, change, alter and renew at pleasure, and to take, have, hold and enjoy all manner of property, real, personal and mixed, or of what kind soever, and the same to grant, let, alien or assign at pleasure; provided, that the clear yearly value of the real estate of the said corporation shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars, lawful money of the United States of America.

2. And be it enacted, That the said Association shall consist of all Alumni of Rutgers College, who shall have hitherto been or who shall hereafter be passed, to a Bachelor's degree in the Arts or in the Sciences at said College, and who shall unite themselves with the Association by signing this Act, and complying with the reqnirements of the by-laws of the Association, and the Alumni-graduates of Queen's College shall be ex-officio members for life, entitled by courtesy to all the privileges of membership.

3. And be it enacted, That the objects of the corporation hereby created shall be the promotion and perpetuation of amity among its members, the cultivation of Literature, Science and Art-Taste, and the promotion of the interests, and the extension of the influence of its Alma Mater—Rutgers College.

4. And be it enacted, That the business of said corporation shall be transacted, the authorities and duties, and the number and titles of its officers determined and fixed, and the objects of its institution advanced in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws and special orders it may adopt for those purposes; and a signature to this act shall be considered a signature to the by-laws for the time being of the corporation; provided, that nothing therein contained shall be contrary to the constitution and laws of this State; and provided, that no by-law shall hereafter be valid and binding unless it shall be proposed and passed at one annual session of the corporation and be enacted and received at another annual session, and be sustained by the votes of two-thirds of the members present at each reading; and provided, that no alienation or lease for a longer term than one year of any real estate of the corporation shall be valid except the same be proposed at one annual session of the corporation, and be enacted and received at another.

5. And be it enacted, That this act shall be considered a public act, and shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 17th, 1874.

STATE OF NEW-JERSEY.

Department of State.

I, HENRY C. KELSEY, Secretary of State of the State of New-Jersey Do Hereby Certify, that the foregoing is a true copy of an Act passed by the Legislature of this State, and approved by the Governor the seventeenth day of March, A. D., 1874, as taken from and compared with the original, now on file in my office.

{ Seal }

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my official seal at Trenton, this seventeenth day of July, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy-four.

HENRY C. KELSEY,
Secretary of State.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE 1. This Association shall be denominated "THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ALUMNI OF RUTGERS COLLEGE.

ART. 2. The Association shall consist of all Alumni of Rutgers College who have been, or who shall hereafter be passed to a Bachelor's degree in the Arts or in the Sciences at said College, and every Alumnus so passed will be expected, as a friend of his Alma Mater, to unite with this Association at its business meeting on the day of his graduation, and the Alumni-graduates of Queens College shall be ex-officio life-members, entitled to all the privileges of membership.

ART. 3. The objects of this Association shall be the perpetuation of those friendships which were formed by its members during the period of their Collegiate intercourse, the cultivation of Literature, Science and Art-Taste, the promotion of the cause of Education, and the advancement of the interests and the extension of the influence of its Alma Mater—Rutgers College.

ART. 4. The Officers of this Association shall be a President, four Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a Biographer, and a Permanent Chairman of the Standing Committee.

ART. 5. The Standing Committee shall be composed of the Permanent Chairman thereof, the Treasurer and the Secretary of the Association, and twelve members of whom four shall be graduates of at least five, and five with the Permanent Chairman shall be graduates of at least ten years standing, and five with the Permanent Chairman shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

ART. 6. This Association shall meet in annual session at ten o'clock in the morning of the day next preceeding the day of the Annual Commencement at Rutgers College and the session may be prolonged by adjournment as may be deemed advisable, and the members present shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

ART. 7. The Officers shall be elected annually by a plurality of votes at the annual session, and the office of Permanent Chairman of the Standing Committee shall be filled in like manner, whenever the same shall become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise. The election shall be by ballot, under the superintendence of tellers, as shall also be that of orators, but when there are no opposing nominations the Secretary may by general consent, deposit one ballot on behalf of the whole house.

Art. 8. At the sessions of the Association the President shall appoint such temporary Secretary or Secretaries as may be necessary to assist the Secretary, (1), in noting the proceedings of the Association ; (2), in registering the names of attending members ; (3), in receiving signatures to the constitution ; (4), in receiving and receipting for annual contributions, and in such other manner to aid him as may be necessary or he may desire.

Art. 9. No member except a life member shall be eligible to office, or be entitled to vote at any election, unless he shall have paid an annual contribution for the preceding year.

Art. 10. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be members resident in or near the City of New-Brunswick.

Art. 11. Every member shall at the time of signing these articles pay to the Secretary the sum of one dollar, which shall be his first annual contribution, and there shall be an annual contribution of one dollar.

Art. 12. Any member who shall pay at one time the sum of Ten Dollars or who shall pay the sum of Five Dollars twice in any term of of three years, or who having paid his annual contribution annually for five years, shall thereupon pay the sum of Five Dollars at one time in lieu of all future annual contributions, shall be a Life Member, exempt from further annual assessments, and the monies thus contributed in sums of Five and Ten Dollars shall be invested in such manner as to procure and yield an annual income to the Association.

Art. 13. Every Alumnus of Rutgers College will be expected to keep the Secretary of this Association advised of his residence and Post Office address, and the Biographer informed of his life record.

Art. 14. The actual expenses of officers incurred in the performance of executive or clerical duty shall be paid, on presentation of a proper voucher to the Standing Committee.

Art. 15. The President, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents in the order of seniority, shall preside at all meetings of the Association, decide all questions of order, and regulate its proceedings generally.

Art. 16. The Secretary shall keep a correct minute of the proceedings of the Association, and make all records required by it. He shall receive and receipt for all monies contributed to the funds of the Association and pay the same over to the Treasurer. He shall have charge of and safely keep the records and papers of the Association, and shall open and maintain as directed such correspondence as may tend to advance its interests. He shall keep a register of all members attending the annual meetings of the Association, and a register of the names and Post Office addresses of all the members of the Association so far as the same can be ascertained. He shall present at each annual session, a list of all members eligible to office and entitled to vote at elections of officers, and should he desire it, at any meeting, the President shall appoint a temporary Secretary or Secretaries to assist him in the performance of his duties.

ART. 17. The Treasurer shall receive and receipt for all monies paid over by the Secretary, keep correct accounts of his receipts and expenditures, pay all orders allowed by the Standing Committee, and exhibit an accurate account of his doings as Treasurer to the Association, at its annual session and whenever called upon to do so by the Standing Committee.

ART. 18. It shall be the duty of the Biographer to present at each annual meeting of the Association, memorials of the lives of such of its members as may have died during the preceding year, and all such memorials shall be preserved in the archives of the Association or published in its transactions as it may direct.

ART. 19. The Standing Committee shall execute all such measures as may be committed to it, and shall have charge of all business of the Association not otherwise provided for. It shall prudently manage the monetary affairs of the Association and shall make a full report of its proceedings at every annual session. It may suggest such measures as it may deem proper for promoting the objects of the Association and shall have power to make rules for its own government and to fill vacancies occurring during its term of service in its own number.

ART. 20. Propositions to add to or amend these articles may be offered in writing by three members over their signatures, and the question shall be upon the passage of the proposed alteration to a second reading, when if two-thirds of the members present vote in the affirmative, it shall be read a second time at the next annual session, when if again sustained by a two-third vote it shall be enacted and received.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

1. The President shall take the chair punctually and cause the session to be opened with prayer.

2. The minutes of the previous session shall be read, corrected if necessary, and approved.

3. The President will announce appointments, if any, of temporary Secretaries.

4. Signatory members of the Graduating Class for the current year shall then be announced and introduced.

5. The President shall appoint a committee to nominate officers and orators for the ensuing year.

6. The President shall appoint a committee to invite the attendance of the President and Board of Trustees of the College at the anniversary exercises.

7. Reports of officers and of the Standing Committee.

8. Reports of special Committees appointed at the previous session.

9. Unfinished Business.

10. New Business, including observations on any subject of general interest by any of themembers present, and reception of communications from the President, Faculty or Board of Trustees of the College if any offer.

11. Report of nominating Committee, and election of officers and orators, Primarius and Secundus, for the ensuing year.

12. Appointment by the President of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year.

13. Adjournment.

ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES.

At the hour appointed the order of business shall be suspended, and

1. The report of the Biographer will be received.

2. Contributions and donations to the Museum, Art Gallery and Library of the College may be presented.

3. Delivery of the annual address by the orator elect.

4. Semi-centennial and decennial class addresses.

REGULATIONS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

REG. 1. The Standing Committee of the Association of the Alumni of Rutgers College shall meet at the call of the Permanent Chairman as soon as practicable after its appointment.

REG. 2. At the said meeting, the business first in order shall be to organize, under the superintendence of the Permanent Chairman, by the election of a Vice Chairman, whose duty it shall be to preside during the year at all meetings of the Committee, and perform the customary duties of a presiding officer.

REG. 3. The Permanent Chairman shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Committee, and shall report on its behalf to the Association as circumstances may require. He shall sign and distribute all calls for stated and other meetings, and all other official notices. He shall sign all warrants drawn on the Treasurer, and shall conduct the correspondence of the Committee.

REG. 4. A Stated Meeting of the Committee shall be held on the Monday next preceding the day of the annual session of the Association, to transact such business as may be brought before it, and to agree upon an annual report, containing such representations and suggestions as it may deem it advisable and expedient to submit for the consideration of the Association.

REG. 5. Other meetings of the Committee may be called as occasion may seem to require, by the Permanent Chairman, at his own instance, or at the request of any two members, or in the absence of the Permanent Chairman, by the Vice Chairman.

REG. 6. At meetings of the Committee, business shall ordinarily have precedence as follows:

1. Noting members present.
2. Reading minutes of previous meeting for correction and approval.
3. Reports of Sub-Committees.
4. Reception of written or verbal communications and suggestions.
5. Matters relating to the objects of the Association.
6. Financial business.
7. Unfinished business.
8. Miscellaneous business.
9. Preparation of report of the Committee.

REG. 7. Members living at a distance, when unable to attend, may vote and be represented by proxy.
